

2010 Phyllis Goldman
Encouragement Award for Women

REQUEST FOR NOMINATIONS

The Phyllis Goldman Encouragement Award is given in honor and memory of Phyllis Goldman, a local businesswoman. Phyllis inspired women to stretch themselves beyond society's norms and expectations by following their dreams and hearts as they pursued careers and redirected their life paths. The award, presented at a Chamber luncheon each fall, recognizes a woman who has demonstrated a noteworthy entrepreneurial and/or professional pursuit. Nominees are leaders in for-profit businesses (within the last seven years) who inspire and mentor other women to do the same.

To be considered, the nominee:

- ◆ must be a member of the Cayuga County Chamber of Commerce in good standing (members are listed on the Chamber's Web site: www.cayugacountychamber.com);
- ◆ has acted as a role model for women and girls pursuing their career dreams;
- ◆ has demonstrated significant professional and/or entrepreneurial leadership in a for-profit business;
- ◆ and her business have demonstrated "staying power" and positive response to adversity in a changing business environment;
- ◆ and her business have demonstrated community involvement and commitment to women-related community projects.
- ◆ must be living at the time of nomination.
